Colin R. Singer and associates are professional, resourceful and dependable. I selected Colin R. Singer over the other lawyers because of their competitive service fee, excellent credibility, and convenience on-line service. He explained all the steps and procedures in clear and concise manner from beginning to the end. All my questions were addressed promptly over the e-mail; this is a cost-and-time-saving advantage and very convenient to my situation.

I got married during the process and different rules were applied to my application process, but his staff made the transition so easy and quick; I was surprised. Our application got approved within 3 or 4 months after my applications were dispatched. My interview was waived, I believe, due to a well-prepared documentation combined with Colin R. Singers' expertise in presenting my case. We got our Permanent Residence Visa within a month after we submitted the Landing Fee.

We are very glad and satisfy with the service and assistance Colin R. Singer and staff had offered us. We also believe he would provide the same quality service to you or your family. I hope this testimony would help you in making decision to pick the right lawyer for you.

God Bless,
Jerry and Vanty

Dear Mr. Singer,

Upon reading many positive client recommendations and learning about your services through various immigration forums and Internet sites, I decided to seek your assistance in obtaining my Canadian permanent residency. I'm very glad to say that those recommendations were very true to their words, and through your excellent, prompt, and professional services, I was able to get an interview waiver and my actual permanent resident visa in less than 7 months after all my documents had been submitted to the Canadian consulate in Buffalo, New York.

I truly thank you and all of your staff for the highly efficient and courteous service, and I will most certainly keep you at the top of my recommendation list for whomever requires immigration assistance to Canada.

Sincerely,

-Nieraj

It's easy to give a testimonial for somebody who provides a service like the CCIRC. Anything that is related to immigration is always a big confusion due to the number of documents and procedures involved. People at CCIRC make it look like as easy as 1-2-3 and they do go an extra mile to make sure we understand what is needed and assist and sometimes actually get whatever is needed during the process. I sincerely appreciate your co-operation and wish you success in years to come.

Thank you

I'm one of the lucky ones because I received my Landing Paper in 6 months' time but above all, I would like to thank you and your staffs for handling my case in a professional and efficient manner. All of my questions that were emailed to you were promptly replied all the time. That's a great relief especially for someone who is desperately in need of an answer.

I would highly recommend your service to anyone who is thinking of immigrating to Canada. Good job!!!!

Dear Mr.Singer!

I would like to express my sincere acknowledgements for a decisive role You played in successful outcome of my immigration process. And it is necessary to emphasize that highest level of Your professional approach to the needs of the clients, quality of the services I've been provided with and outstanding expirience in such sensitive field as Canadian Immigration Legislation really impressed me.

I am still keeping in my mind all the steps I've taken with Your support during this exciting and maybe most important process in my life:

April 19, 2000 - applications prepared by You together with the supporting documents had been sent to the Canadian Embassy. Your advice concerning the Immigration Office for submission was a crucial factor at this stage, because if I had submitted my application to another Embassy - the one I initially had considered - I would have lost at least two years.

May 10, 2000 - I received my filenumber.

Oct. 18, 2000 - You informed me about interview date scheduled for Dec 05, 2000

Nov. 18, 2000- I received a courier package from You containig the medical forms and a comprehensive Self-Direct Employment program prepared for me.

Dec. 05, 2000 - I attended a selection interview at the Embassy. Your support was a crucial factor once again - having shown the officer Your SDE, I didn't hear any further questions regarding my plans as for employment in Canada.

Dec. 19, 2000 - I passed trough medical examination.

Jan. 19, 2001 - With Your kind help a proof of funds and Right of Landing Fee were sent to the Embassy.

Mar. 19, 2001 - You informed me that You received the visas.

Mar. 23, 2001 - I received the visas.

As I mentioned above, It was exciting and very important process.Though It might have turned into very nervous and stressful without help and assistance from such proffessionals as You.

Finally I would like to wish You new achievements in Your professional field.

Best regards.

Vadim, Ukraine.

I believe this is a wonderful opportunity to tell you how greatly I appreciate your assistance at all stages of the immigration process. You personally, and other members of CCIRC team, expertly advised me on preparing the required documents, patiently answered all my questions and inquiries, helped to choose the Embassy to apply to (and I must say it proved to be an excellent choice!), led me step by step helping to bring my rather complicated case to the successful outcome. I can recommend your services to any person planning to immigrate to Canada and hope to have the pleasure of turning to your help in future.

With the very best wishes to you and all members of CCIRC staff,

Dear Prospective Applicant:

A decision to immigrate to another country is a very serious one, and I believe that retaining the services of the right attorney is crucial to the successful outcome of the immigration application. Once I had determined that I wanted to live in Canada, I put much time and effort into finding an attorney that would be up to the standards to do the job.

I first met Mr. Colin Singer and associates at a Boston, USA, area university where they were conducting a seminar on immigration to Canada. This seminar had been organized by the International Student Office. And, I must say, I was very impressed with Mr. Singer's level of professionalism and honesty. I can also assure you that this school's International Student Office would have never agreed to host this seminar if they had not determined that the students would be well-served by Mr. Singer.

Once I determined that Mr. Singer's law firm was reputable, I took the extra step of contacting the Bar Association in Quebec to see if there had been any formal complaints against Mr. Singer and his firm. I was happy to hear that there were NO complaints at all.

I must say that I am a very detail-oriented person on such an important issue, and contacted Mr. Singer's office many a time. His associates were invariably informative, polite, and understanding, and always took the time to answer my questions honestly.

My special thanks go to Ms. Mayada Jamil who worked very closely with me on my file. I am happy to report that my application was processed successfully and I was granted that landed immigrant status. Ever since, I have recommended the services of Mr. Singer's law firm to many of my friends. What impresses me a lot about this law firm is that their process is one of honesty and integrity whereby they will inform the prospective client if they do not feel the latter has good chances.

In a word, thank you very much to Mr. Singer and his associates. I am very grateful for a job well done.

Communication infrastructure in Ghana is not developed as it is in Canada and the visa application process encountered some difficulties. For Colin R. Singer, these difficulties were seen as challenges and he stood by me and succeeded in getting the visas for me.

This is a remarkable success story. Therefore no matter where you live Colin R. Singer is capable of helping you to immigrate to Canada as he has done for me.

At the beginning, when I gave a start to my plans to immigrate to Canada, I was convinced, that I will be able to conduct all the process on my own, without any assistance. I thought, there was no difficulty to fulfill the application forms and prepare other required documents and submit them to visa office, afterall. It is true, any more or less educated individual can do that. However, upon advice of friends, I decided to approach a lawyer, and you happened to be the one my good friend Alex Grigorian has advised me of, based upon his own experience. I visited your web site and got convinced myself on my initial decision. And when I saw the accompanying letter prepared by you to the visa office on our case, I understood, that letter was the core element of application rather than documents evidencing my skills and experience, along with your reputation which has likely played an important role. After my interview in Vienna I could have continued communications with visa office myself, but thoughts that there was a chance to come accross a necessity to write of another such document have prevented me to do so. Once again I had to accept , that each business must be done by its professionals and no business liked amateurs.

Mr. Singer. I appreciate your assistance and thank you for your successful efforts. I do not mind if my comments appear on the web. However, I would ask you to do that after I leave Armenia , because, I have a too large surrounding here and do not want my name to appear in the media now.

Best regards.

Dear Mr. Singer,

I thank you very much for your splendid assistance in making this happen for Melvin, my children and for myself. I know that we had to hang on there and think really positive. My children are our lives possession and we want them to have a better live as well. God has guided us in getting a helpful and compassionate person. I know it is your profession in this kind of work but, you made it happen for us. Melvin apparently, will definitely make an outstanding letter straight from the heart. He is so happy and you can't imagine how happy we all are! I would also like to extend my thanks to Ms. Mayada who has been so understanding when at times she has to make us feel comfortable and she reassures us that there is hope and we need a lot of patience. Also I don't want to forget ,Terry who was so gracious enough to satisfy our doubts and questions that kept on going on and on in our minds. We want security, future, stability and being legal and be able to attain what we want to achieve.

Dear Mr. Singer,

We are very pleased and grateful to you and your staff for being very instrumental to our success in obtaining permanent residence in Canada. Placing our trust in you was a very important and crucial decision since much of our future was at stake and my son had to enter college. However, after careful assessment of my qualifications under "Independent Category" and consideration of our status in the United States, you showed an undeniable determination that you could handle our case. You thus helped us climb over a huge stepping stone, and because of you, we can reach greater heights. Undoubtedly, you have lived up to your reputation of being reliable, and have been able to demonstrate a high degree of professionalism. After our selection interview, we may fully realize the value of your service and the confidence in knowing that we are backed up by your strong firm which has guided us throughout. Thanks to Ms. Jamil Mayada for accommodating us through the telephone and e-mail in addition to being supportive of our goals.

Sincerely,
Melvin Lorenzana

A further recommendation:

Colin R. Singer is a very reliable attorney, and our aforementioned case of attempting to move to Canada was proven a success through his undeniable benevolence. The respect that was built between him and our family was mutualistic, as he strived just as much as we did to avail ourselves of a status. The countless hours of consideration had led us to a situation of inconfidence, but Mr. Singer's occupation with our task was a positive externality through the day we received our visas. If there is anyone that you ponder about approaching for service of a high order, Colin R. Singer is absolutely one's final destination.

Dear Mr. Singer,

Thank you very much for all your cooperation and assistance in obtaining our permanent residence. We greatly appreciate for all the services that you have provided us for the past 11 months to reach our goal.

It was about a year ago when I decided to apply for me and my wife. While searching for a good lawyer to guide us in the proper direction, your organization caught my attention. Till that time we are very much pleased with all the guidance that your organization has provided us. Every time I called for help, the response was immediate with all the necessary solutions that we needed.

I hope we can meet soon so, me and my wife can personally thank you and everyone in your organization . My wife is making all the necessary arrangements for her departure. We are hoping to get everything taken care within next 1-2 months. We will let you know our exact travel date as soon as we finalize that.

Again, please accept our appreciation from the bottom of our heart. We will be very happy to share this good news with everyone through your website.

With regards,
Francis Costa.

I have to express my utmost satisfaction in dealing with you and associates in your firm.

I have no doubt from the beginning in realizing that I have and I am dealing with one of the most professional firm I have come across.

When we entered the mandate it was so clear to me what support I should expect from your firm.

Starting from the evaluation stage until the visa issuance stage my case was handled so professionally and the responses from your associates were very quick and very apt.

I have already referred your firm's name to couple of my friends and I will have no hesitation in referring your firms name any prospective individuals.

Thanking you and best regards.

I'm very satisfied. Since July 19, 2001 I've happily got in my hands three Canadian immigrant visas for my wife, my daughter and me. Now I can look back for a while and assess how useful was to have a legal counsel to get them. At first, the free assessment you provided let me know that my case could be a successful one and I could decide to start to spend time, money and heart in trying to be accepted as an immigrant by the Canadian Government. At second, the presentation letter you wrote let the visa office preview all my strengths before they started to review 1.5 Kg of forms and supporting documents provided by me and reviewed by you. At third there was ever somebody who could hear me about my doubts and impatience and provide me opportunely with the certainty that all was running well.

I chose Canadian Immigration Resource Centre between other many options because it offered a legal counsel not just an assessorship and they were able to get the reviewing of the case if visa were fortuitously denied. My sister who is since one year ago a permanent resident in Canada had used previously their services and was very satisfied with them as she got their visas and his current job. And last but not least the counselling fees were very competitive and had a partial money back guarantee very convenient.

Once someone has decided to move to Canada to get better job opportunities and quality of life I'm sure he must have a legal counsel to assure he gets as soon as possible his visas and should have Canadian Immigration Resource Centre as his very first option.

Best regards
