Letter 2

As a devoted christain, i will first of all thank God Almighty for leading me to the services of Mr. Collins R.Singer. They are a wonderful team of seasoned professional immigration lawyers whose confidence, tenacity and assiduity for excellence has pushed them from not just being the professionals that they are, but becoming empathic to the aspirations of their clients.

On many occasions, I became discouraged especially having to pay appreciable amounts of money to the Canadian immigration department. Remittance of such amounts poses a problem from the Cameroonian banks here. These wonderful team always had a ready answer and a convenient way to go about it.

To me, the successful handling of my file to the issuance of the Canadian visas to me and my entire family confirms their immense experience and dedication to their professional calling.

One more thing, their professional fee is so moderate and best of all, they made provisions for me to pay in the most convenient and stress free way.

I whole-heartedly recommend their services to any one whose true aim is to have the Canadian immigration visa.

Dr. Orsar Solomon Terumbul ( Just received Canadian Immigration visas for me and my entire family. Thanks to Mr. Collins R. Singer Attorney.)

Dear Attorney Singer,

I didn't know anything about Atty. Colin Singer when I engaged his services. As a leap of faith, I trusted what I read about him online. And sure enough, he was a man who can be trusted. He and his staff provided answers promptly to all my questions in a very professional manner. The rate they quoted me was very reasonable vis-à-vis the services they provided. I would highly recommend CCIRC to anyone in need of immigration services, Canadian immigration in particular. CCIRC exceeded my expectations. I am truly delighted that I chose them.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Singer,

I would like to thank you and your company again for your assistance with the immigration process. You have done a great job and the process went very well. Although initially I did not think it would go so fast, based on discussions with other people, I was surprised to learn relatively soon that the visa interview was waived. The medical examination results also came in fast. All in all the process lasted thirteen months, which I think is a very reasonable timeframe. Thanks again for your good guidance and advice during this process. I wish you all much success.

Regards,

Mr. Singer,

It gives me immense pleasure to appreciate your professional, expert and efficient services, I experienced as a successful candidate for Canadian Immigration. The technical advices given at various stages were really helpful and did save a lot of my efforts and time in collecting the right documents at right time. In general, case was presented strongly to the Visa Office and earned an interview waiver too. Technical Staff was quite helpful and co-ordinative (Particularly Ghada Jamil & Mayada Jamil). What I like most is the efficient access to online system which kept me updated of my file records at any given time. The fees charged was very reasonable (infact it was the cheapest I found after surveying many other services providers). The replies to my queries were always quick, comprehensive and to the point.

I would highly recommend new candidates to acquire the services of CCIRC should they wish to have a smooth and trouble free process.

Letter 13

We had the fortune of having Canadian Citizenship & Immigration Resource Center (CCIRC) Inc., represent my family and I for immigrating to Canada under the Skilled Information Technology worker category.

We found CCIRC working with us throughout the process in a professional manner, while diligently following up on our case file. Fortunately, my case was on fast-track and was able to get PR status approval in about a year's time. While the process is cumbersome and tedious, there are rewards to be reaped in terms of immigrating to Canada – a land of opportunity.

I would highly recommend Colin Singer as your Attorney for Immigration Consulting needs.
