When Expedia Gives a Full Refund

You are most likely to get your money back in these cases:

- Within 24 hours of booking (for many flights and reservations)
- If you booked a “refundable” or “free cancellation” option
- If the airline, hotel, or provider cancels your booking
- If your trip qualifies under special policies (like schedule changes or disruptions)

In these situations, refunds are usually processed back to your original payment method .

When You May NOT Get a Refund

You might not receive cash back if:

- You booked a non-refundable ticket or hotel
- You cancel after the free cancellation period
- The airline or hotel policy doesn't allow refunds

In many of these cases, Expedia may offer:

- Travel credits instead of cash
  - Date changes or rebooking options

How Long Do Expedia Refunds Take?

- Most refunds take 5–30 business days depending on the provider
- Banks or payment methods may add additional processing time

Since Expedia acts as a middleman, the actual refund often comes from the airline, hotel, or travel partner .
