Reddit-Based Questions (People Also Ask) + Answers

These are real concerns from U.S. users:

---

Q1: Is Chase Travel<sup>SM</sup> cheaper than booking direct?

Answer:

Not always. While Chase offers deals, direct airline or hotel websites may have:

- Exclusive discounts

- Member-only pricing

👉 Tip: Compare both before booking.

Q2: Do you still earn airline miles?

Answer:

Yes, in most cases you still earn frequent flyer miles because tickets are treated as paid fares.

Q3: Is it worth using points on Chase Travel<sup>SM</sup>?

Answer:

Yes—especially with Sapphire cards due to the 25%–50% bonus value.

---

Q4: Can I cancel bookings easily?

Answer:

Yes, but:

- You must go through Chase Travel<sup>SM</sup>
  - Policies depend on airlines/hotels

Q5: Is Chase Travel<sup>SM</sup> reliable?

Answer:

Yes, it's backed by Chase and widely used—but service experiences may vary.
